

Visitors from other Countries Guide

When visiting from European Economic Area;

Austria, Belgium, Denmark, Finland, France, Germany, Gibraltar, Greece, Iceland, Italy, Luxembourg, Liechtenstein, The Netherlands, Spain, Portugal, Norway, Sweden and the Republic of Ireland.

Nationals from these countries are eligible for a form 111.

Information for these countries is in the Health Advice for Travellers.

There are reciprocal health care agreements with some other countries outside the EEA.

There is a country by country checklist of countries in the Health Advice for Travellers Booklet.

Countries with no health care agreements include:

Switzerland, Turkey, Cyprus, Canada, The United States of America, Mexico, All South American Nations, Every country in the Middle East and Africa, all of Asia including India, Thailand, Japan, Hong Kong, Most Islands in the Caribbean and certain republics of the former Soviet Union the whole of the Pacific region except Australia and New Zealand.